The Schwartzman Brothers Mission...

The Schwartzman Brothers Lacrosse mission is to provide youth and high school lacrosse players with a wonderful opportunity to learn the game from the some of the nation's best players.

Schwartzman Brothers Lacrosse Academy gives you the best instruction on the fundamental skills and current game philosophies needed to develop into an elite lacrosse player.

Camp Directors

Jesse Schwartzman

A current goalie for MLL's Denver Outlaws, Jesse was a 3 year starter at Johns Hopkins, a 2x All-American, and the NCAA Final Four MVP of the JHU Championship teams in '05 and '07.

Andrew Schwartzman

A former MLL Bayhawk, Andrew was an All-ACC midfielder and attackman at Maryland where he led the Terps to two ACC Championships and two NCAA Final Fours.

What to Expect...

Schwartzman Brothers Lacrosse will offer 4 nights of informative, live-game instruction to male attackmen, midfielders, defensemen and goalies. The camp is formatted around basic and advanced techniques, grouped by position. Our Staff ensures progression through individual, group, and live instruction.

The beginning of camp will be devoted to maximizing individual techniques and team fundamentals. As camp progresses, players will begin competitive scrimmages and other game-like situations. Some of the highlights include:

- ✓ Shooting Demos
- ✓ Fastest Shot Contest
- ✓ Goalie Competition
- ✓ Transition Offense/Defense
- ✓ Team Concept
- ✓ Live action with/against current college stars!
